Literacy Activity Choice Board

Directions: After reading your book, select an activity to complete. Be sure to attach all products/activities to this paper to turn in when you return back to school!

Vocabulary Pictionary

Pick five (5) unfamiliar words from a story. Ask an adult to help with the meaning of the word, draw a picture of the word, and write the word on the back.

Comic strip

Create at least three (3) frames of a comic strip showing a scene in the book. Be sure to include speech bubbles.

Make A Book

Pick something you want to teach someone how to make. Create your own how-to book by writing the steps and illustrating each step on the pages.

Collage

Fold a piece of paper in half. Label one column nonfiction and the other fiction. Use magazines to cut out at least seven (7) pictures for each column. Paste in the appropriate column.

Folktale Poster

Read a folktale and make a poster telling why that book is a folktale. Some examples of folktales are: Tortoise and the Hare, Stone Soup, and Three Little Pigs

Phonics

Copy a page from a book and color code the following sounds: short a (blue), short e (red), short i (yellow), short o (green) & short u (orange). Try long vowels, too.

Wonder Bubble

Think of a question that has you "wondering." Research. Draw a "bubble" using your research to answer your question; draw and label your illustration.

Draw A Story

Draw a picture of someone doing something and write a story. Then draw what might happen next. Continue showing the problem and solution. Staple to make a book.
